"CAN WE GET AN ENCORE?"

Library: Mrs. Brown

The library has been a busy place this week with the arrival of the book fair!

students began previewing all the new books available for sale. So far, Bad Guys, the new I Survived book, Pig the Star, and the latest Amulet have generated the most excitement. The Book Fair will be open during conferences on Tuesday, October 23rd and Thursday, October 25th from 3:00-7:00, or you can purchase online by clicking here. There is still one volunteer spot left to fill--Tuesday from 5:00-7:00. If you're available to help, click here to sign up.

After the Book Fair ends, students will finish up several units. For example, 2nd graders are working on a Mock Caldecott project. They've been analyzing illustrations from picture books published in 2018 and are voting on their favorite. We'll see if the class winner matches up with the official winner!
