

"GROWING TOGETHER TO BE OUR B.E.S.T!"

Heritage Elementary's
WEEKLY WRAP-UP

weekly highlights

Heritage Elementary earned a pumpkin painting contest for exceeding their 2,000 "high five" ticket goal!

Students had fun decorating their pumpkins all week!

All the pumpkins were set up in the gymnasium for all the classes to walk through and vote on their top (3) choices. Below are some of the submissions! We will find out our winners on Monday!

make note

- If you would like to bring drinks and/or desserts for the teacher meal during conference week, please click here to sign up. The PTO meal for teachers will be Tuesday, October 23rd.
- The Scholastic Book Fair will take place during conferences on October 23rd and October 25th. Volunteers are needed to help out! If you're interested, please click here to sign up for a volunteer shift.
- The PTO's district fundraiser is kicking off! It will run October 5th-19th, and parents can watch their student's backpack as well as the PTO Facebook page for all the information. It will offer a $20 fundraising card where friends and family can purchase licensed drinkware packages online that will be sent directly to them with free shipping. Two custom DC-G drinkware options were made exclusively for this fundraiser and are being offered for purchase as well. Order forms will be coming home with students today!

"CAN WE GET AN ENCORE?"

Art: Mrs. Cory

Hello from the Art Room!

I wanted to share what the Kindergarten classes are working on. We are learning about color, rainbow order, color mixing, and shapes.

Today we read "Spookley the Square Pumpkin" and mixed our own orange to paint our own pumpkin. It's going to be the perfect weekend to paint with your Kindergartener!
