Grand opening on the Meadows Maker Space on Friday, February 1st. Study hall students are invited to check out the collaborative space to make, learn, explore, and share during the afternoon that day. We will be open Periods 5-8. Be sure to check out with your study hall teacher. Watch this video for more details: Maker Space opening

For this week's book of the week we are going to do BZKR. Set in the near future, BZKR is the story of a war for control of the human mind. Charles and Benjamin Armstrong, conjoined twins and owners of the Armstrong Fancy Gifts Corporation, have a goal: to turn the world into their vision of utopia. No wars, no conflict, no hunger. And no free will. Opposing them is a guerrilla group of teens, code name BZRK, who are fighting to protect the right to be messed up, to be human. This is no ordinary war, though. Weapons are deployed on the nano-level. The battleground is the human brain. And there are no stalemates here: It's victory . . . or madness.

Auditions for the Spring Play, "The Diary of Anne Frank," will be held Monday February 4th from 3:30 – 5:30 and Tuesday February 5th from 6 – 8pm in the Auditorium. Auditions packets will be available starting after school on Tuesday January 22nd outside of the Auditorium. Scripts are now available to be checked out to read at the high school office. Anyone that is interested in auditioning for the role of Anne Frank needs to memorize and prepare a monologue. All other roles will be read for at auditions. Roles are open to all DCG students in grades 9-12.

Lead Technical Theater positions will be available for, "The Diary of Anne Frank." Interviews will be held starting on February 8th for anyone interested in positions. If interested in this please pick up a Crew packet as soon as possible so that you can fulfill the requirements.

If you would like these packets electronically or have any questions regarding the spring play please contact Kar at kar.gustafson@dcgschools.com
