

FRIDAY, MARCH 1ST

VOL: 2 | ISSUE NO: 25

"GROWING TOGETHER TO BE OUR B.E.S.T!"

Heritage Elementary's
WEEKLY WRAP-UP

:::weekly highlights:::

Ms. Webb's Kindergarten students made special "Reading Wands." They use them to point to words in books while reading!

2nd grade students in Ms. Bradley's class started their government unit in social studies. After studying the three branches of government, they are now learning about law making. Students were divided into the House of Representatives and the Senate in order to work together to pass a bill on to the President!

Optional Kindergarten students in Mrs. Caron's classes met their goal for independent reading time! Way to go!!!!

The preschool students in Miss Patty's class at Kids Korner celebrated Dr. Seuss and worked on patterning!

The "All for Books" coin drive starts on Monday! Bring in your spare change to help buy books for teachers, students, and the library. Contact Mrs. Brown in the library if you have any questions!

"CAN WE GET AN ENCORE?"

Music/Band: Mrs. Ihde

The 5th grade band students have been accomplishing great things this year. They attend a band lesson on one day out of the six day cycle and are learning so much! They've learned how to hold the instrument, how to make a sound, how to read music, and even how to play a duet. The future looks very bright for DCG's newest musicians!
