North Ridge Elementary - A View from the Ridge

We have extra yearbooks for sale in the office. They are $20 and once they are gone we will not get any more.

Due to the last three days of school being on a short week and teachers planning special activities that week, the last day to come visit/eat lunch with your child(ren) this school year is May 12th.

May 8th - 12th the PTO is celebrating National Teacher Appreciation Week. If you would like to help celebrate the teachers and staff at North Ridge please use this link, <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0B4CADAA2DA3FF2-teacher2> to donate items.

Highlight on Library - Introducing students to new authors is an important part of library class. Third grade recently completed an author study on Robert Munsch. He is known for his humorous stories, perfect for the elementary age sense of humor and for practicing expressive reading. After learning about the author, listening to his books, discussing his writing techniques that create humor, the students paired up and spent a class reading his books aloud and voting for their favorites.
